PREFACE.

THE ORGANIZATION OF THE DIVISION OF PUBLIC Records in the State Library and the subsequent classification of thousands of the State Documents brought to light many unpublished Muster Rolls of the French and Indian War and of the War of the Revolution. Many of the Muster Rolls published in Volumes 2, 10, 11, 13, 14 and 15 of the Second Series and Volume 23 of the Third Series of the Pennsylvania Archives were found, and a comparison of the originals with these printed lists resulted in the discovery of numerous errors due to carelessness in copying. As a large portion of the correspondence of the Division relates to names included in these rolls, the editor concluded that they should be re-printed, with the addition of such new material as could be obtained. In this conclusion he had the warm approval of Governor Pennypacker, Dr. John W. Jordan and the Custodian of Records, Mr. Luther R. Kelker. Through the courtesy of Dr. John W. Jordan copies of muster rolls of soldiers who had served in the early wars of the Province of Pennsylvania belonging to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania were carefully copied and the material included in the present publication. Every effort was used to ascertain the location of military papers throughout the State and copies of many valuable manuscripts have been secured for filing in the Division of Public Records. In only one case was such permission refused. In all such work the greatest care was taken to copy the papers verbatim, and in the case of very rare papers photographic copies were obtained.

Many of the rolls give not only the name, but the age, birth-place, residence and general description of the soldiers enlisting. In Volume 13 of the Second Series of Pennsylvania Archives about two hundred and fifty pages are given to an alphabetical list of soldiers who received Depreciation Pay for services in the War of the Revolution. A great majority of these give neither rank, company, nor regiment, and identification is almost impossible. During the course of the classification seventeen volumes containing cancelled Depreciation Pay certificates were found. These were carefully copied and the rank, company and regiment stated. The orthography has been preserved and the service entered alphabetically under the proper regiment and county. Abstracts were made from pension applications which were arranged alphabetically under the county from which the applications were made. The Rangers on the frontiers were also placed under the counties from which they enlisted. One of the most important discoveries among the papers was a book containing a large number of letters of marque and in these many of the commanders and first officers of the vessels are personally described.

In concluding this preface the editor wishes to extend his hearty thanks to the very large number of correspondents who so promptly came to his aid in making this list as complete as possible, and especially does he wish to testify to the devotion displayed by Mr. Kelker in helping to accomplish this work. It would have been practically impossible for the editor to have produced the present series in connection with the work of reorganizing the State Library, without the assistance of a person whose enthusiasm was well sustained.

Certain letters are added in brackets with every new muster roll in the list. These letters refer to the source from which the information was obtained, and are explained as follows:

- a. Pennsylvania Archives, Second Series.
- b. Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series.
- c. Original Muster Rolls from the Division of Public Records.
- d. Original Muster Rolls from the Historical Society of Pennsylvania.
- e. Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography.
- f. Certified copies from the Department at Washington, D. C.

[In December, 1747, the Assembly having made no provision for the defence of the City and Province, many of the inhabitants became alarmed and voluntarily entered into an association for defence. Companies were formed, which proceeded to choose officers, who, in turn, assembled and chose their superior officers, all being commissioned by the direction of the Provincial Council. Col. Records, vol. V, pages 172, 174. The result of this movement is detailed in the message of Anthony Palmer, President, to the Assembly dated May 17, 1748: "The Province which very lately was in a defenceless state, is now, through the zeal and activity of some, who have the love of their country sincerely at heart, rendered capable, with the blessing of God, of defending itself against the designs of our enemies, many thousands of the inhabitants having voluntarily entered into the most solemn engagements for that purpose; in consequence whereof, arms have been provided, and every one appears assiduous in qualifying himself for the defence of his country. They have likewise at considerable expense, erected batteries on the River, so situated and of such strength and weight of metal, as to render it very dangerous for an enemy to attempt the bringing any ships before the city. We have granted commissions to such general and other officers, as have from time to time been presented to us for that purpose by the Association. Since these measures tend so manifestly, under God, for the security of this Province, the preservation of its metropolis, we think they justly deserve the assistance and encouragement of your House."—Votes of Assembly, vol. IV, page 72.]

"OFFICERS OF THE PROVINCIAL SERVICE."—1755. (a.)

[“In the fall of 1755, after Gen. Braddock’s defeat, there were several companies of militia sent into Northampton, and other frontier counties, to guard the inhabitants. Among the rest was one raised by Isaac Wayne, father of the late General Wayne, with whom I entered as a volunteer, being then turned of sixteen years. Our company, with some others, rendezvoused at Easton, under the command of Genl. Dr. Benjamin Franklin, for some days, until the arrival of a New England Gentleman, of the name of Clapham, who took upon him the command, and Dr. Franklin returned to Philadelphia. Soon afterwards we were ordered to take a place called Canoten Hatten (Gnadenhutten), a Moravian town and settlement, the inhabitants of which had all been murdered by the Indians. We erected a Stockade Fort there, to which was given the name of Fort Allen. The fall and winter were spent in erecting a number of Stockade forts on the frontier of Northampton county. In the month of February we were relieved and discharged.”—Col. Samuel Miles’ manuscript, dated Feb. 4, 1802.]

Thomas Lloyd's company, and at my arrival at John Harris' (now Harrisburg), where the Battalion which was intended to march against the Indians at Shamokin, rendezvoused under the immediate command of the Governor of the Province, Robert Hunter Morris. I was selected to attend the Commander-in-Chief, as Orderly Sergeant, in which capacity I continued until a day or two before the Governor left, when he was pleased to give me an Ensign's commission. As soon as the troops were collected and properly equipped, we marched for Shamokin. We crossed the Susquehanna and marched on the west side thereof, until we came opposite to where the town of Sunbury now stands, where we crossed over in Batteaux. In building the fort at Shamokin, Capt. Levi Trump and myself had charge of the workmen, and after it was finished, our Battalion remained there in garrison until the year 1758."—Miles' Manuscript.

SECOND BATTALION.

["In the year 1758, the expedition against Fort Du Quesne, now Pittsburg, was undertaken, and our Battalion joined the British army at Carlisle. At this time Capt. Lloyd had been promoted to the rank of Lt. Col., but retained his company, of which I had the command as Capt. Lieutenant, and was left some time in command of the garrison at Shippensburg. On my marching from thence with a brigade of wagons under my charge, at Chamber's, about eleven miles from Shippensburg, the men mutinied, and were preparing to march, but my reasoning with them and at the same time threatening them, the most of them consented to resume their march to Fort Loudon, where Lieut. Scott was with eight or ten months pay. While the army lay at Ligonier we were attacked by a body of French and Indians, and I was wounded in the foot by a spent ball. In November of this year, (Nov. 25) the Army took possession of Fort Duquesne, under the command of Gen. Forbes; a poor emaciated old man, who, for the most part of our march was obliged to be carried in a horse litter. In the year 1759, I was stationed at Ligonier, and had 25 men picked out of the two battalions under my command, etc."—Miles manuscript.]

The Commission for the Captains were dated when I rec'd them. The Officers are all sworn. Hunter's & McPherson's Companies are full, & if they had Cloathing & Accountments are ready for Action.

I go with Mr. Jamison to the Review, 22 Miles West of York, on Thursday next, there to contract for Wagons, in pursuance of a Power from Colonel Boquet for that Purpose. 35 Contracts were signed here yesterday.

The Bearer, Mr. Lieut, Ewing, goes to buy Cloathing for Capt. McPherson's Company. As you have always been good to the Officers I make no doubt you will aid the Bearer with y'r good Council when 'tis necessary.

I hope you have reced the money for Wm. Hopkinson, by Capt'n Hunter. I shall be glad to hear from you when you have Time. My Family are Well, my Wife sends her Complim'ts. I have kept a War office near 5 Weeks without Fee, Reward or hope thereof; thank God the Expedition looks better than it did; the Store Ships, I hope, have brought the Army, &ca., &ca. I am

"A LIST OF OFFICERS OF THE PENNSYLV'A REGIMENT, COMMANDED BY THE HON. J. PENN, ESQ'R, 1764." (a.)

[The officers of this regiment who had served under Col. Bouquet had, in 1764, at Bedford, made a written agreement to apply for a body of land; accordingly on the 30th of April, 1765, through a committee they made application to the Proprietors for a body of land within the Province. They proposèd to "embody themselves in a compact settlement of some good land at some distance from the inhabited part of the Province, where, by their industry they might procure a comfortable subsistence for themselves, and by their arms, union and increase, become a powerful barrier to the Province." They further represented that the land thus far purchased from the Indians did not afford any situation convenient for their purpose; but the confluence at the two branches of the Susquehanna at Shamokin, (Sunbury now) did, and they therefore prayed the Proprietors to make a purchase and to grant them forty thousand acres of arable land on the West Branch of the Susquehanna. The purchase was made by Thomas and Richard Penn at Fort Stanwix (now Rome, New York,) on the 5th of November, 1768. On the 3d of February, 1769, the committee obtained an order allowing them to take up twenty-four thousand acres to be divided among them in distinct surveys on the waters of the West Branch. In March, 1769, Samuel Maclay, for Wm. Maclay, surveyed eight thousand acres of the grant in Buffalo Valley (now Union county); 6,096 acres were surveyed on Forks and on Chillisquaue creek, and 9,904 remained, the greater part of which was surveyed for them on Bald Eagle creek, commencing a short distance above the mouth, and running up to the town at Howard, in Centre county. It is not known that any of these officers settled upon their tracts except Lieut. James Hays, who lived and died upon his location, and is buried in the Hays graveyard at Beech Creek, Clinton county. Major de Haas' son moved upon his land early in the present century and his descendants are very numerous both in Clinton and Centre counties.]

MUSTER ROLLS

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA NAVY.

1776-1779. (b.)

PREFATORY NOTE.

When Volume One of the Second Series of Pennsylvania Archives was printed, it was supposed that it included all the records of the Pennsylvania Navy. Recently some muster rolls have been found which, although in part duplicating what was contained in the volume referred to, comprise such valuable additional material, relating to that branch of the Continental Service in which Pennsylvania took such a prominent part, that it has been deemed advisable to print all the rolls.
